We meditate for 25 minutes and end with a brief talk to carry us through the week. For more information call Pat O'Brien 831-566-8234.

DAILY READINGS:

<https://bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading>

You can listen to or read the readings, and watch a reflection video. You can also sign up to get the readings emailed to you every morning.

THE MASS NEVER ENDS—IT MUST BE LIVED!

We are invited to continue to reflect upon the Gospel reading (Matthew 18:21-35) and homily as we live out our Eucharist this week. Reflect upon it in your heart and mind, and discuss it with your family, friends and faith community members.

- What have been some of your struggles with forgiving others in your life?
- When you have been able to forgive others "from your heart," what enabled you to do so?
- How have you received forgiveness in your life?

HONDURAN ORPHANAGE...THANK YOU ALL

In May, I again asked you, benevolent parishioners, to help orphans in Honduras. Again, you showed compassion with generous financial donations, and copious school and medical supplies, shoes, and clothing. We were able to purchase white boards, markers, and erasers for a few of the grades to compensate for the lack of pen, pencils, and paper. For the teachers and students, this simple addition is a game changer. The stickers, toys, and other gifts bring more delight and joy to the children than we can reasonably anticipate from a first-world perspective. We were able to rent a bus to drive the children three hours each way to see and experience a movie at a theater with popcorn and soda! They will forever remember this adventure.

Thank you enormously for helping others carry their onerous crosses. May God bless you and your families!

Appreciatively,

Crockett Gilligan Hinga

The Triumph of the Cross

September 14

September 14 is the feast of the Triumph of the Cross, previously called the Exaltation of the Cross. Christians have celebrated this feast on this day since the first half of the fourth century. According to an Eastern text, the empress Helena discovered the Lord's cross on September 14, 320. Fifteen years later, on September 13, two churches on Golgotha in Jerusalem were consecrated (the Church of the Cross and the Church of the Resurrection). On the following day, the relic of the cross found by Helena was solemnly exposed for public veneration. An annual commemoration began in Jerusalem, and churches in other cities that had relics of the cross brought them forth this day for veneration by the faithful. The ceremony was called the exaltatio (lifting up). What follows are some words our ancestors in the faith have used to describe the mystery, glory and power of the cross of Christ.

May I never boast of anything but the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ! Through it, the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.
-Galatians 6:14–16

*Faithful Cross, above all other,
One and only noble tree,
None in foliage, none in blossom,
None in fruit your peer may be;
Sweet the wood and sweet the iron
And your load, most sweet is he.*

*Bend your boughs, O Tree of glory!
All your rigid branches, bend!
For a while the ancient temper
That your birth bestowed, suspend;
And the King of earth and heaven
Gently on your bosom tend.*
-Venantius Fortunatus, 6th century

*How splendid the cross of Christ! It brings life, not death; light, not darkness; Paradise, not its loss.
It is the wood on which the Lord, like a great warrior, was wounded in hands and feet and side, but healed thereby our wounds. A tree had destroyed us, a tree now brought us life.*
-Theodore of Studios, 9th century
