UPCOMING EVENTS

MEMORIAL GARDEN UPDATE

You may have noticed that our Memorial Garden outside the church is being worked on. Our landscaping crew will install pavers and new plants to enhance the beauty of the garden. All the memorial stones have been saved and will be put back in the improved garden. Thank you for your patience while the work is being done!

MEMORIAL MASS: Our annual remembrance of those who have died this past year (from November 2025—October 2026) will take place on Saturday, November 7 at the 5:00 PM mass. Photos of our deceased loved ones will be displayed in the church during the month of November. If you would like to have someone remembered at this time, please email your deceased loved one's name and/or photo to Karen Victorino at karen@resaptos.org or call her in the parish office no later than Friday, October 30. It is very important that the name is received by this time to ensure that your loved one's name gets placed on the wall. If you have submitted a name you will receive a candle when you enter the church through the main doors and then when your loved ones name is called you will stand at your seat and the light will be brought to you. Please be sure to sit on an aisle or in the front row.

You can listen to or read the readings, and watch a reflection video. You can also sign up to get the readings emailed to you every morning.

THE MASS NEVER ENDS—IT MUST BE LIVED!

We are invited to continue to reflect upon the Gospel reading (Matthew 22:1-14) and homily as we live out our Eucharist this week. Reflect upon it in your heart and mind, and discuss it with your family, friends and faith community members.

- How do you sense God "tugging" at you throughout your day? How do you respond?
- How does what you believe about life after death affect the way you live today?
- Is there some way that you feel you are not responding to God's invitation in your life? What is holding you back?

Bold Mercy: Women Shaping Catholic Migration Ethics with Dr. Kristin Heyer

The hopes and push factors propelling migrant women, together with gender-specific threats they face, challenge simplistic slogans about immigration today. Their experiences and those who accompany them witness to the signs of the times, the value and limitations of Catholic social teaching principles for countering injustice and inhospitality, and ways forward marked by hope, resistance, and structural change. Join us on Tuesday, October 13, lecture and Q&A 6:30 PM—8:00 PM. Reception immediately following, St. Clare Room, Santa Clara University Library (the event will also be livestreamed). Our speaker is Dr. Kristin Heyer, who holds the Joseph Chair in Theology at Boston College. Her scholarship and teaching focus on topics such as moral agency, migration, social inequality, and modern Catholic social teaching.

Giving an Account of Our Hope: Catholic Social Teaching Today with Fr. Bill O'Neill, S.J.

Pope Leo XIV recently reminded us in his encyclical Magnifica Humanitas, that Catholic Social Teaching (CST) is “not a handbook of principles and norms to be applied, but a process of shared discernment” (no. 27). It is a living tradition “that safeguards and interprets humanity’s vocation to a fully and just life” (no. 3). In our workshop, we will explore how we live this tradition by giving an account of our hope (1 Pet. 3:15) to Christian and non-Christian alike. Join us on Sunday, October 25 from 2:00 PM—4:00 PM, Villa Maria del Mar Retreat Center, 21918 E. Cliff Drive, Santa Cruz. Our speaker is Fr. Bill O’Neill, S.J. Workshops are interactive & include opportunities for conversation & reflection. All our welcome!

Mary, Mother of Life

When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son, Mary responded with her fiat, “May it be done to me according to your word” (Lk 1:38). Mary conceives Christ in her womb, becoming the mother of God, the mother of Jesus. Jesus himself tells us that he is “the way and the truth and the life” (Jn 14:6). In becoming the mother of Jesus, Mary becomes the mother of life. Mary’s acceptance in this unforeseen moment demonstrates how each of us must welcome the gift of new human life, even when that gift is unexpected or calls us to make sacrifices.

Eve was called the “mother of all the living” (Gen 3:20). Unfortunately, her disobedience brought sin into the world. In contrast Mary, through her obedience to God, gives birth to our Salvation. Mary becomes the New Eve—the new mother of all the living. Her fiat gives us an example of perfect docility and cooperation with the will of God.

At the Annunciation, when Mary learns that her elderly cousin Elizabeth is six months pregnant, she travels in haste to visit Elizabeth, spending the next three months at her side, even while pregnant herself. In her selfless service to Elizabeth, the Blessed Mother perfectly models how we are called to accompany expectant mothers as they prepare to welcome new life into the world.

Mary’s role as the Mother of Life extends from the Annunciation all the way to the Crucifixion. On

Oh Mary, “Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life.”

Evangelium vitae

Calvary, Mary stands at the foot of the Cross with Saint John. The Gospel tells us: “When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, ‘Woman, behold, your son.’ Then he said to the disciple, ‘Behold, your mother.’ And from that hour the disciple took her into his home” (Jn 19:26-27).

With his final breaths on the Cross, Jesus entrusts Mary and the Beloved Disciple to one another, and by extension establishes a maternal relationship between Mary and the Church. Jesus’ words are addressed not only to Saint John, but to each one of us. In this moment, the physical mother of Jesus becomes the spiritual mother of the Church and all the faithful. Saint John goes on to take Mary into his home and cares for her as she advances in age, demonstrating our responsibility to continue our care for human life, from conception to natural death. Mary, who taught us how to nurture human life, becomes the recipient of that same honor and care.

The life of the Blessed Mother teaches us to respect each human life in every stage and circumstance. Mary is our model for upholding the sanctity of all human life. O Mary, “Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life.”¹

Resurrection Catholic Community

Established in 1966 as a mission of St. Joseph's of Capitola, Resurrection officially became its own parish in the Diocese of Monterey in 1968.

Resurrection serves over 1000 families in the greater Aptos area and hosts many Catholic families who visit the beaches and resort areas of the county.

We strive to be a community of faith where all are welcomed, nourished, and empowered to be Christ for others.
